The Resurrection and New Life

Every year I watch the seasons change. I watch the seasons go from summer to fall; from fall to winter, and from winter to spring. But there's something unique about springtime. Everything that was dead comes to life again right before your eyes. It is amazing to watch everything that's dead, cold, and lifeless come to life again. It appears that one day everything is brown and dead, and suddenly a few days later everything begins to turn green, blossom, and bloom. It is amazing because I realize that it's all the handy work of God! Moses said in Gen. 8:22 "While the earth remains, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease." The seasons are God's doing!

How applicable it is that the resurrection of Christ occurs in the springtime of the year. God is the Master planner, and I'm absolutely certain that the season of Christ's resurrection is no mere coincidence. God perfectly timed the season of the resurrection to coincide with spring...the time of year when new life springs forth from the earth. Consequently, nature itself shouts out to the most obstinate unbelieving heart, that God is able to bring new life to that which is dead.

That is the message that Paul gives the saints at Corinth who were confused about the resurrection. Paul uses an agrarian illustration to prove the probability, practicality, and reality of the resurrection. He said in 1 Cor. 15:35-38, "But someone will say, 'How are the dead raised up? And with what body do they come?' Foolish one, what you sow is not made alive unless it dies. And what you sow, you do not sow that body that shall be, but mere grain — perhaps wheat or some other grain. But God gives it a body as He pleases, and to each seed its own body."

Jesus said something similar in John 12:23-24. "Jesus replied, 'The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. I tell you the truth, unless a kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains only a single seed. But if it dies, it produces many seeds.'" Jesus said that nature itself is proof that God has the power to give new life to dead things. And that is the ultimate message of the resurrection of Christ. Christ died, He was buried, but thank God He rose again the third day never to die again (1 Cor. 15:1-4). And because Jesus lives, we too have been resurrected spiritually, and one day we will be resurrected physically. Paul said in Eph. 2:4-6 that we were all once dead in our sins, but God raised us up to new life with Christ. "But God, who is rich in mercy, because of His great love with which He loved us, even when we were dead in trespasses, made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved), and raised us up together, and made us sit together in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus."

Resurrection power is not just something we will experience at the end of time, but it is something we experience even now through the new life we enjoy in Christ.

Check Your Tongue

For many years, doctors would take a close look at the tongue of a patient in order to determine his health. The ability of many doctors to diagnose various illnesses simply by checking the tongue is amazing.

While physicians gauge the health of an individual by the tongue, the great Physician can gauge the health of the soul by the tongue. In relation to how the tongue speaks, Jesus said, "A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth good things, and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart brings forth evil things" (Matthew 12:35).

Often, we can get a good idea about a man's character by the way he speaks. Our speech is very important. Not only does our tongue reflect the health of our soul, but the health of our soul influences the tongue. Paul spoke often about the proper use of the tongue, and James places a great deal of stress upon controlling the tongue (Ephesians 4:25, 29–32; James 3:1–12).

Not only can your corrupted soul defile your tongue, but your tongue can defile your clean soul.
Oh, the importance of the tongue! So much so that Jesus stated, "For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned" (Matthew 12:37). So, while you are living day by day, don't forget to check your tongue!
